FOUND GUILTY OF HARBORING UNLICENSED DOG

After a hearing Tuesday afternoon that lasted nearly an hour, J. Donald Swope, Esq., West Broadway, was found guilty by Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore on a charge of harboring an unlicensed dog and a fine of $5 was imposed with an order that Mr. Swope pay the costs.

Mr. Swope, who is president of the county bar association, and his law partner, Richard A. Brown, Esq., who acted as defense counsel, immediately announced they will appeal the case to court. A five-day period is allowed for the filing of the appeal bond which must be in an amount double the fine and costs. The bond had not been filed at noon.

Does Not Own Dog

In answer to questions from Mr. Brown, Mr. Swope, testifying in his own behalf, said that he is not the owner of the house in which he lives; that his daughter, Mrs. Betty Swope Frazee, is the owner of the registered cocker spaniel about which the suit centers, and that he does not "harbor or care for" the spaniel.

Both Mr. Swope and Mr. Brown objected continuously to much of the testimony of the prosecutor, H. E. Oakes, field agent for the bureau of animal industry in York and Adams counties, on the grounds that it was "hearsay."

Before the hearing opened the defense found fault with the information and Mr. Oakes decided to withdraw his original charge and file a new information detailing the description of the dog and the specific allegations against Mr. Swope. New discussions arose when Mr. Swope said "Donald Swope," the form in which it appeared in the charge, was not his name. Finally that objection was waived and the hearing got underway with Mr. Oakes' testimony.

File Objections

Oakes said he and Officer Wisler went to the Swope home in the course of a house-to-house check for unlicensed dogs and Mrs. Swope answered the door. The defense immediately objected to any testimony about what Mrs. Swope had said on the grounds that a wife cannot testify against her husband.

Telephoned For License

Justice Basehore observed that Mrs. Swope was not testifying at the hearing and directed Oakes to proceed. Messrs. Swope and Brown declared all of Oakes' testimony was "absolutely improper" but the justice directed the prosecutor to proceed.

Oakes quoted Mrs. Swope as saying they had a license for the dog. When he asked to see it she returned after a five or ten-minute interval to report "we have it now but I guess it's too late." She explained the license had just been purchased in a telephone conversation with the county treasurer's office. Oakes said he observed the dog in the home.

There was a long line of questions about how Oakes determined that Mr. Swope was the "proprietor" of the house and should be charged with proprietorship of the dog. He

Gen. Andrews And Bishop Leonard Die In Iceland Crash

Bishop Leonard headed the Washington area of the Methodist church which includes the Harrisburg district of which the Gettysburg Methodist church is a part. During the pastorate of the Rev. D. Perry Bucke here, Bishop Leonard visited the local church and addressed the congregation.

(By The Associated Press)
London, May 5—Lieut. Gen. Frank M. Andrews, commander of all American Army troops in the European theater of war, and Methodist Bishop Adna Wright Leonard of Washington, representing 31 American Protestant denominations in an inspection tour of U. S. troops abroad, were killed Monday in Iceland in the crash of an Allied plane which was reported to have had other high-ranking U. S. Army officials aboard.

Andrews' headquarters here said in an official announcement early today that "full information concerning the accident is not yet available" but disclosed that the plane had fallen in "an isolated locality in Iceland," stepping-stone of the Allied northern air ferry route across the Atlantic.

One Soldier Survives

The presence of Bishop Leonard in the plane was confirmed by the War department in Washington, after his son, A. W. Leonard, Jr., Pittsburgh, Pa., disclosed he had been informed of the bishop's death and declared that the War department told him that "only one enlisted man" had survived the crash. Bishop Leonard's presence aboard the plane was not mentioned in the original announcement here.

Andrews was the eighth, and highest-ranking, U. S. Army general officer to be lost since the start of the war.

He was a square-jawed, deeply tanned and hard-fighting man who was characteristically known among his men simply as "the general."

Fifty-one years old, he had been an advocate for years of a big Army Air Force and a champion of heavy four-engine bombers. He was one of the few officers of his age and rank to hold an active flying license.

Touring Army Bases

Bishop Leonard had just completed a tour of American troop centers in Great Britain and northern Ireland and was scheduled to visit other American concentrations in north Africa and the Middle East.

Leonard's son said the 68-year old occupant of the highest position in the Methodist church, the bishopric at the nation's capital—a post he had occupied since June, 1940—had undertaken his visit to American fighting men at the request of President Roosevelt, who, he said, suggested "the Protestant churches should send a representative to American soldiers overseas, pointing out to the Catholic church had sent Archbishop Francis J. Spellman of New York."

Andrews' death left his deputy, Maj. Gen. Harry C. Ingles, veteran of 30 years in the Infantry and Signal Corps, in at least temporary command of America's European troops, Washington dispatches said. Ingles previously was in command of mobile forces in Panama, and had served under Andrews there.

Dean W. E. Tilberg, head of the USO since its establishment in the county three years ago, was re-elected president at a re-organization meeting Tuesday evening at Christ Lutheran church.

H. Alvin Jones, New Oxford, was elected vice president; Mrs. Frederic Griest, Flora Dale, secretary, and Mrs. Ellen Tipton Buehler was re-elected treasurer.

The new officers together with the other eight members of the board of directors elected last week will act as the executive council for the association and will meet the first Monday of each month at the YWCA. All of the officers were named for one year terms.

The Rev. Donald R. Heiges, secretary of the Student Christian association at the college, which has turned its building over to the recreational use of the members of the 55th College Training Detachment, will fill one of two vacancies caused by resignations. The other vacancy will be filled by a Littlestown resident, it was stated.

2 Dances a Month

The USO decided to continue the dance committee headed by Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh as an advisory group to help committees from local organizations sponsoring the various dances planned for service men. Because funds are not immediately available to pay for an orchestra at every dance, the board decided to hold two dances a month, with an orchestra playing at one

Warren W. Stouck Sues For Divorce

A libel in divorce has been filed at the office of Prothonotary Lee M. Hartman at the court house for Warren W. Stouck, formerly of Gettysburg but now employed at an Army air base depot at Syracuse, New York. The libel was filed by J. Francis Yake, Jr., Esq., counsel for Mr. Stouck, against Catherine (Clancey) Stouck, whose address is not given.

The suit is brought on grounds of desertion. The couple was married December 10, 1925. Mr. Stouck lists August 20, 1938, as the date of the alleged desertion. A subpoena was issued today in the case and was made returnable, June 14.

15 HUSBANDS AMONG 19 MEN INDUCTED HERE

Nineteen men from Gettysburg and western Adams county were selected for service in the United States armed forces following examination Tuesday by service physicians at Harrisburg. That number was accepted from the May call of the Gettysburg Selective Service Board. All but four are married.

Two of the men were the fourth members of their families to be called into service. Jacob Mark Bream, McKnightstown, was the fourth son of Mrs. Robert D. Bream, Cashtown, to be selected for the United States Army. He had been preceded into service by his brothers Paul, Harry and Glenn. Charles Thomas Myers, colored, accepted Tuesday by the Navy, is the fourth son of Mrs. Amanda Myers, 410 South Washington street, to be inducted. Three brothers, John, Lewis and Charles, had previously been accepted by the U. S. Army.

Six were accepted for Navy service including Charles Edward Thomas, 244 Baltimore street; Lewis Seylar Heyser, Gettysburg R. 5; Fred Wilmar Guise, 153 York street; John Wesley Bucher, Bendersville; Calvin Robert Shultz, 154 Breckenridge street and Charles Myers. Three of the men accepted by the Navy, Thomas, Bucher and Shultz are married.

HISTORIANS SEE EARLY MAPS OF COUNTY TOWNS

Old drawings and maps of Gettysburg and Adams county were spread before the members of the Adams County Historical society at their May meeting, Tuesday evening in the court house, when they gave special attention to "Early Towns of Adams County."

Examination of the original plot of the town made for General James Gettys with its numbered lots and ground rents noted recalled again the old story of how Gettysburg came to be the county seat.

Dr. Henry Stewart, who took an active part in the evening's discussions, answered questions from several members about the origin of the ground rents on many Gettysburg lots by explaining that when the contest for the site of the county seat lay between Gettysburg and Hunterstown, Gettysburg was the decision of the county commissioners because of an offer by Gettys to turn over to the county ground rents in this town to the county.

See Old Prints

The ground rents on most of these lots were paid for more than a century until the commissioners about 10 years ago offered to allow owners to pay off the ground rents, thus eliminating the requirement of annual sums promised by Gettys nearly a century and a half ago.

A picture of the first Adams county court house and other old photos and maps were spread on the law library tables for examination by the members during the discussion. Several were more than a century

Nazis Retreat Under Relentless Assaults In Northern Tunisia; Lose 12 Tanks In Trap

By EDWARD KENNEDY
Allied Headquarters in North Africa, May 5 (AP)—Americans and French, smashing along the Mediterranean toward Bizerte, have reached a point only 10 miles from that Naval base, and other American forces closing in from Mateur have driven to within five miles of Ferryville, Allied headquarters advices said today.

Ferryville is 10 miles northeast of Mateur and only eight miles across Lake Bizerte from the Naval base.

Beat Back Counterattack

The penetration to within artillery range of Bizerte was made after beating back a German counterattack at Djebel Cheniti, north of Lake Achkel, one of the water defenses protecting the southern approaches to the Naval base.

Pushing out of Mateur to the east and southeast, the Americans also made a five-mile gain, and repulsed another light enemy counterattack launched from Djebel Makna, a ridge on the east side of the river Tine.

Dispatches this morning from Mateur said American patrols had taken Eddekhlila, six miles west of Tebourba. Tebourba is 18 miles west of Tunis and the same distance south-east of Mateur.

Lose 12 Tanks In Trap

(These patrols apparently had branched out from the main movement southeast of Mateur and were near a junction with the British First Army which has been fighting in the Medjerda valley six miles southwest of Tebourba.)

Farther south, the Germans also lashed out in a strong counterattack east of Medjez-El-Bab, but 17 of their tanks walked into a British trap and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's communique said 12 of them were destroyed. Among the smashed tanks were two 60-ton Tigers. The counterattack was hurled back.

MRS. E. W. HEISER DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Beatrice Mae Heiser, 25, wife of Edward W. Heiser, Round Top, died suddenly at her home this morning about 5:10 o'clock from a heart attack.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, investigated and signed the death certificate.

Mrs. Heiser had been in her usual health and died shortly after having turned off an alarm clock which was set for 5 o'clock.

She was born in York county, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Kehr, Biglerville R. 1. Since last October the Heisers resided at Round Top and prior to that had lived at Hunterstown.

In addition to her husband and parents she is survived by a three and one-half months old daughter, Rita Ann; three sisters, Mrs. John Maring, Gettysburg R. 1; Mrs. William Showers, Mt. Hayes, Maryland, and Mrs. Don Martin, Biglerville R. 1, and two brothers, Clyde and Guy Kehr, both of Biglerville R. 1.

Funeral services from the Bender funeral home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by the Rev. Mr. Garvin, pastor of the Taneytown United Brethren charge. Interment Mt. Joy cemetery.

INJURED NEWSIE IMPROVED TODAY

Charles Lawver, 15-year-old Gettysburg Times newsboy, who was critically injured Monday evening while riding his bicycle along the Mummasburg-Arendtsville road, is much improved at the Warner hospital today. Lawver has been a Times carrier for the last nine months and also has served as one of its official war stamp agents.

The youth, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lawver, Gettysburg R. 3, is suffering from puncture wounds of the back and abdomen and possible internal injuries.

A state police investigation of the accident showed that the boy was riding his bicycle north along the highway when he swerved toward the left side of the highway and collided with a sedan operated by C. W. Hykes, Biglerville R. 2.

The bicycle struck the right side of the car and Private Anthony Martin, who investigated, said that the door handle on that side may have hit the youth. No charges have been laid.

At the Pont Du Fahs "hinge" between the German western and southern fronts, the 19th French Corps of Gen. Louis Marie Koeltz were reported smashing ahead in a new offensive launched yesterday at dawn toward Zaghouan, strategic communication center which is dominated by the Djebel Zaghouan, a 4,000-foot peak which is the highest in Tunisia.

The communique said these forces cutting in behind the German mountain front which faces Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's still inactive British Eighth army were meeting stiffening German resistance, but they gained two miles by nightfall yesterday and were within eight miles of Zaghouan.

Cut Main Road

(An NBC correspondent's broadcast from Tunisia said the French had cut the Zaghouan-Enfidaville road. Zaghouan is about 14 miles east of Pont Du Fahs, 24 miles northwest of Enfidaville and 28 miles south of Tunisia.)

The Eight Army's artillery continued to pound the enemy forces facing it in the hills, and its patrols had several clashes with the enemy north of Enfidaville.

As a result of the American-French advance along the Mediterranean, the northern shores of Lake Achkel were now almost entirely occupied by the Allies, who had reached the western slopes of Djebel Cheniti after stopping a comparatively feeble German counterattack.

The French advance about Pont Du Fahs was made against stiffening resistance, it was noted.

Bad weather hampered Allied air operations, with tactical force fighters patrolling forward areas and light and medium bombers and fighter-bombers attacking enemy gun positions and motor transport.

Lost Fliers Found

One enemy plane was destroyed, but Allied air forces operated without the loss of a single plane. Moreover, the crews of four Allied planes reported missing yesterday are safe, the war bulletin said.

A Tunis-bound enemy merchant ship, loaded with munitions and mechanical transport, was blown up by Allied light naval forces operating east of Cap Bon peninsula and an escorting 650-ton Italian torpedo boat was sunk, it was announced. The ship had sailed from Naples.

Some survivors were rescued, General Eisenhower's headquarters said. The engagement was without any loss to the Allied force.

The Axis now was fighting on a shrinking 120 mile front.

Allies Likely To Take Sicily, Sardinia Before Cleaning Africa

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Axis fear that the Allies may be getting set to invade the big islands of Sicily and Sardinia, even before the Tunisian campaign is finished, isn't such a crazy idea at that.

The Germans assert that a lot of Allied shipping, including invasion barges, is assembled at Gibraltar. This announcement likely is a fishing expedition for information, but that doesn't necessarily mean the report isn't true. It will be recalled that Berlin was broadcasting close-to-the-bone information about the Allied fleet for the north African landing last fall some days before the event actually took place.

Plan No Let-Up

However, the purpose of this article isn't to debate whether the Boche reports are true. The point is that it wouldn't be surprising to find that the Allies are indeed preparing for invasion of Italian territory to coincide with the wind-up of the Tunisian show, which today is reported as continuing to go well for the right side. And, as the Nazis plaintively observe, there's no law which says such an invasion has to await the surrender of the last Axis soldier on African soil.

The new Allied strategy in relation to the entire Axis war-machine seems to be epitomized in the Tunisian offensive. That's to hit the enemy at as many vital points as possible simultaneously and to keep on hitting, so as to make him divide his strength and fight without pause for rest or repair.

Now apart from the fact that Sicily is the natural bridge between Africa and the Italian mainland, it flanks the narrow and shallow channel which forms a bottle-neck in the Mediterranean between the great island and Cap Bon, Tunisia. Only 90 miles separate Sicily from Africa at this point, and all through-shiping must pass here.

Control Islands

The result is that the Sicilian channel has become a hunting ground for Axis warplanes, many of which have been based on Sicily, Sardinia, which is only a little more than a hundred miles from Tunisia, also holds a club over this channel.

What more natural than that the Allies should have a house-cleaning of Sicily and Sardinia with the wind-up of the Tunisian campaign?

Whatever else follows, the Allies seem likely to clean out Sicily and Sardinia in the immediate future. Where they will strike after that is still the secret of the high command.

BULLETINS

London, May 5 (AP)—The largest force of four-engined bombers yet sent over Germany dropped nearly 1,500 tons of bombs last night on Dortmund, industrial Ruhr valley city near Essen, an RAF commentator said today.

TRADING FOOD STAMPS ILLEGAL

If you have surplus red or blue food stamps in your War Ration Book Two you may not give them to friends who have exhausted their supplies, it was emphasized today in a statement from the local War Price and Rationing board. The statement follows:

"To clear up any misunderstanding regarding the use of points from Ration Book II by any persons other than the book holder, the local War Price and Rationing Board wishes to call attention to the section headed 'Warning,' printed on each Ration Book II: 'This book is the property of the United States government. It is unlawful to sell or give it, to any other person or to use it or permit anyone else to use it, except to obtain rationed goods for the person to whom it was issued.'

"Item 3 of the same section reads: 'Persons who violate rationing regulations are subject to $10,000 fine or imprisonment, or both.'

At the same time it was stated that some merchants are violating OPA regulations by removing ration coupons from consumers' books when they had no further value to the customer so that the retailer may give the consumers 'credit' for coupons turned in. 'Both of these actions are clear cut violations of the intent of rationing,' OPA officials declared.

old. Dr. Frederick Tilberg, program chairman, led the discussion and displayed an early undated blueprint of the earliest Gettysburg plan and another town map, apparently a copy of a map hung in the law library at the court house bearing the date 1841. Both of the exhibits shown by Dr. Tilberg were loaned for the evening by Mrs. John D. Keith, their owner.

J. Harry Sinner of East Berlin told the society of the early history of Abbotstown and East Berlin. He said the former was laid out in 1753 by John Abbott who later willed the land along the two sides of the highway to his two sons, Thomas and Edward. St. John's Lutheran church was founded in the 1760's, he said, and first used a log building. The Reformed church was organized in 1782.

East Berlin Facts

The town of East Berlin—originally called Berlin by its founder who was a native of Berlin, Germany—was established on May 8, 1764, by a Mr. Frankerberger after a land purchase from the Penns. Mr. Sinner said. The town was designated later as East Berlin to distinguish its postoffice from a Berlin, Pa., in Somerset county. Lots first were sold for two pounds each with the stipulation that buildings had to be erected within two and a half years. Quit rents provided by Frankerberger still are being paid by present owners, Sinner said.

Ten years after his purchase, Frankerberger sold the land he had bought for 28 pounds in 1764, for 550 pounds. The speaker said the first English school was established in the town in 1769 and the town was set up as a borough in 1880. The Union Lutheran and Reformed church was erected in 1800, the society was told.

East Berlin is without important industries now. Mr. Sinner observed, but recalled that the Hoffheims reaper, the Hartley windmill and farm plows once were manufactured there. He said the East Berlin-Abbotstown railroad, now abandoned, originally was intended to go on to Harrisburg. That road was built after Abbotstown, formerly Berwick borough, lost a campaign to be put on the route of a Gettysburg-York railroad.

Inspect New Quarters

A brief business session preceded the program with Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, president, presiding. The report of Treasurer Harry T. Stauffer was received and Mrs. Mary K. McClean reported that the basement rooms being prepared for the society by the county commissioners are nearly complete.

After the meeting the members made an inspection of the fireproof basement quarters which soon will receive the society's growing collection of treasured objects of importance to county history. One large room will soon be used as the society's meeting place while the other, a smaller fireproofed vault, will house the valuable historical collections of the society.

About 25 persons attended Tuesday's meeting.

Business Booms

On Dog Licenses

The local campaign by H. E. Oakes, state dog law enforcement officer, against unlicensed dogs has brought a boom in business at the office of County Treasurer John W. Ebrum where dog licenses are sold.

Records there show that during the last two weeks 379 canines have been licensed there. The total to date so far this year is 3,156. Last year 4,032 dogs were tagged in this county.

Oakes was in Gettysburg again today to continue his checkup.

Mechanicsburg Halts Biglerville Nine With 4-Run Rally In Sixth Inning

STEWART HURLS ONE-HIT BALL TO GAIN WIN

Biglerville high suffered its first baseball defeat of the season Tuesday afternoon when Mechanicsburg put on a four-run rally in the last half of the sixth inning to upset the Cannons 4-1 in a game played at Mechanicsburg.

Jeb Stewart, lanky right-hander who soon will be inducted into the U. S. Army, gave up but one hit for the victors. He was wild throughout, issuing seven passes, but yielded only one run which came in the top half of the third frame.

Ken Lauer, ace hurler for Coach Dale Smith's outfit, also hurled splendid ball. He was touched for but three hits, fanned 10 and walked but three batters.

The lone hit scored off of Stewart was made by Lauer.

On Friday Biglerville will attempt to regain its winning stride when it meets Bolling Springs high on the latter's field.

Service Men Blast Strike

Honolulu, May 5 (AP)—

Men of the Army and Navy strongly expressed their resentment today of the temporary stoppage of work in the mainland's coal mines.

The truce did not lessen the bitter blasts of the service men.

Most of the criticism was directed against John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers.

Service regulations, forbidding quoting the men by name, but these are typical expressions of men throughout the Pacific:

"They are letting us down!" "Don't they know there's a war on?" "How do you expect us to fight the war if they lay down at home?" "I am a union man myself but by—I won't be when I get home after the war!" "They're letting us down! Do they expect us to fight with bare fists?"

Strong words expressing bitter feeling punctuated every discussion.

Schedule Boxing For Johnstown

Johnstown, Pa., May 5 (AP)—The Rooney-McGinley Boxing Club of Pittsburgh disclosed it will experiment with promoting fights in Johnstown, matching Ossie (Bull Dog) Harris, hard-hitting 155-pound Pittsburgh negro, with Manuel Rosa, of Baltimore in a ten-round match here on May 13.

Bee Wright, 145, winner of his first five bouts in Pittsburgh, will meet Earl Mathias of Baltimore in the six round semi-final event.

Matchmaker Jake Mintz said Harris' showing will determine whether he gets a place on the outdoor card at Forbes Field on May 24 in Pittsburgh. Jake La Motta, of New York, and Fritz Zivic will meet in the top bout of that show.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, May 5 (AP)—The new major league baseball, which will be distributed to the clubs in a few days, is about as lively as the one the Southern association uses.

And the Southern league always has insisted on plenty of pep in the pills so there'd be plenty of guys with big batting averages to sell at the end of each season.

Lou Coleman of Spaulding's says that the production line will be rolling by today so that there's no danger of a shortage the rest of the season.

Lou Smith is trying to round up 500 bicycles so that race fans can pedal to Rockingham park from the Lawrence, Mass., station where all the trains stop.

If he'd install a few mutual windows at the station so the riders could bet on themselves, the idea might go over.

CONFESSION

When ex-featherweight champ Chalky Wright, who always thought training was getting aboard a train, turned up at the gym yesterday for the first time in seven weeks, Mike Belloise greeted him: "What are you doing here, Chalky? Are you sick?"

"No," admitted Chalky gravely. "I'm just hungry."

CONSOLING THOUGHT

When Burnt Cork struggled home last in the Kentucky Derby, his owner, Rochester (who probably was the only person there watching the nag) remarked: "He's sure tired, ain't he?"

And a friend offered this bit of consolation: "Don't you worry, Rochester. They've been more money lost here today on Burnt Cork than was won on Count Fleet."

SHORTS AND SHELLS

Connecticut high schools have been invited to schedule football games with Yale teams of equal weight and experience next fall.

The boxing service and athletic fund now has distributed equipment to 48 Army camps in the United States and one outfit overseas.

A couple of baseball's prize off-season jobs are held by Brave rookies. Connie Creodon is a detective and Ben Geraghty is superintendent of a cemetery.

They both want it understood that they don't work at those jobs during the summer.

The New York Boxing commission won't name a favored contender for Willie Pep's featherweight title until May 20.

When Frank Carver, Pitt publicity director since 1929, answered the draft call, his farewell message was "please treat my successor kindly."

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Alex Shultz, Seattle (Wash.) Times: "Gosh, perhaps the umpires have some friends, after all."

After insuring its players against accidents or injuries, the Shipyard's baseball league is investigating the prospects of taking out policies on its arbiters, too.

SERVICE DEPT.

Broadway Charley Wagner, who owned as many as 42 suits when he played for the Red Sox, gets along with three suits of blues and one of dungarees at the Norfolk Naval Training Station.

Coast Guardsman Henry Bingham, rated as the best middleweight prospect to appear in Baltimore in a long time, learned boxing in Lieut. Jack Dempsey's classes at Manhattan Beach.

Add Confusion: Colonel Mills (better known as Buster when he was a big league outfielder) now is a lieutenant. But don't call him Lieut. Colonel Mills.

Maybe you didn't notice it, but the six ensigns at the Fort Pierce, Fla., amphibian training base who recently were awarded Navy Crosses for heroism during the landings in Africa all were ex-athletes. Robert Halperin and John Tripson used to be big league pro footballers, Kenneth Howe, Robert Herrick and Jack Byrom were high school coaches and John Bell was a skier at Dartmouth.

New Hope, Pa., May 5 (AP)—The body of Thomas Walker, 60, head of the New Hope (Bucks county) Rationing board, was found yesterday in the Delaware river canal in Washington Crossing park. Police said his widow told them he had been worried over his duties on the board.

LOU NOVIKOFF, HOLDOUT, FUMES AS CUBS FALTER

By JUDSON BAILEY
The Associated Press

The most interested non-participating observer of the goings-on in the major leagues these days must be Louis Novikoff, fuming on the front porch of his hacienda at South Gate, California.

The Mad Russian is a holdout and he's mad. More precisely, he is angry, not crazy—at least not to the extent of overlooking the Chicago Cubs scraping bottom in the standings of the National league today.

The Cubs introduced last year's ball to Chicago for the first time yesterday and 3,908 fans, the biggest crowd of the day, saw a game in which there were 25 hits for a total of 36 bases and 14 runs.

But unfortunately from the Chicago standpoint, 15 of the hits, including a home run by Whitey Kurowski, were made by the St. Louis Cardinals, who won 11-3.

"Awaits Call"

Of the ten Chicago hits not a one was made by an outfielder and it was small solace, as the Bruins stumbled into the cellar alongside the New York Giants, that Chicago broke a string of 23 successive scoreless innings.

The Mad Russian probably rushed madly to answer the telephone every time it rang last night expecting the operator to say "long distance—Chicago calling."

The call seems bound to come soon.

Chicago's other major league club, the White Sox, also is in the cellar of the American league, but this is causing no disturbance because it was picked to finish about seventh while the sports writers, before the season started, rated the Cubs third in the senior circuit.

The vacancy filled by the Cubs and the Giants in the National league basement was left by the Philadelphia Phillies, who vaulted pretentiously into sixth place by beating the Brooklyn Dodgers 3-1 in a twilight game.

Kraus Beats Dodgers

Jack Kraus, the rookie southpaw whom the Dodgers sent to the Phillies a few weeks ago, pitched five-hit ball for his second success against Brooklyn. In rebuttal Rube Melton, the former Philly ace, pitched a no-hitter for six stanzas, but Earl Naylor spoiled it with a home run, his second of the season, to open the seventh.

The Giants were shipped 5-3 by the Boston Braves as Jim Tobin pitched six-hit ball and batted in three runs with a pair of singles. Rookie Charley Workman helped out with a two-run homer.

Pittsburgh was outthit by Cincinnati, 13-9, but nevertheless beat the Reds 8-3 as Rookie Xavier Rescigno worked his way out of continual jams. Vince DiMaggio contributed a home run with one on.

In the American league the New York Yankees kept half a step ahead of Cleveland by beating the Boston Red Sox 4-3. Spud Chandler allowed only six hits and one earned run for his second win.

The Indians squeezed out a 2-1 decision over the White Sox in a tight game for Jim Bagby's third triumph. He allowed just five hits and no scoring after the first frame.

Virgil Trucks of Detroit also achieved his third victory without a defeat as the Tigers stopped the St. Louis Browns 4-3, but he had to have hitless rescue work for 1 2/3 innings by Dizzy Trout to weather a belated offensive by the Browns.

The Philadelphia Athletics matched the Phils and also climbed to sixth place, the Mackmen defeating the Washington Senators, 3 to 1, behind the three-hit pitching of their Mexican rookie, Jesse Flores. Flores now has worked 32 2/3 innings and allowed only 11 blows and three runs.

Property Transfers

Ross E. and Evelyn N. Stock, Mt. Pleasant township, sold to Robert O. and Bertha C. Wolfe, Mt. Pleasant township, a 39 acres property in that township.

Ray E. and Frances P. Kemper, Latimore township, sold to Bruce E. and Florence B. Cline, Latimore township, two tracts in Latimore township.

Sentenced To Defense Job

Pittsburgh, May 5 (AP)—A criminal court jury, acquitting James Jones, 35, of Natrona, unemployed steel rigger charged with assault and battery and malicious mischief, added a recommendation that he get a defense job.

Judge G. Malcolm McDonald told Jones:

"There is no reason why you should not serve your country in defense work. You are hereby directed by the court to comply with the recommendations of the jury."

Ryan Brings Joy To New Teammates

Playing his first game with the Boston Braves, Connie Ryan (No. 42), former New York Giants infielder, receives congratulations from his new teammates after hitting a home run with two on base to give the Braves a 3 to 2 ninth inning victory over the Giants at the Polo Grounds. Behind Ryan are Phil Masi (10) and Johnny McCarthy (3), who scored ahead of him, and Tommy Holmes (1).

Stengel Content To Remain In Bed 'til Broken Leg Mends

By BILL KING

Boston, May 5 (AP)—Now that he is starting his third week in a hospital bed, Casey Stengel, the Boston Braves' broken-legged manager, appears to have convinced his doctors and nurses that he is a contented patient. Previously they feared force might be needed to detain him.

"I guess I'll stay here as long as they want me," Stengel told his latest visitors, Coaches George Kelley and Bob Coleman, who have been running the club since the 52-year-old manager was felled by an automobile on the eve of the National league's opening day.

What makes Stengel's stay in a hospital bed endurable is the fact that his team, now resting comfortably in the first division with five wins and three losses, has out-hit every opponent in every game by an 81-61 margin.

Never before, since he took over the Braves five seasons back, has Stengel had such consistent hitting from the top to the bottom of his batting order.

"And I guess they'll be wanting me here for some time," Stengel continued. "The doctors say my leg is doing fine and the X-rays reveal it is improving every day. Why I've been led to believe that, one of these days, they'll even set it for me."

Due to crowded conditions, Stengel is hospitalized in one of the rooms in St. Elizabeth's Maternity section, quarters which inspired hundreds of hilarious telegrams from his sharp-witted baseball colleagues.

"Being an invalid is not such a bad life as long as the club keeps on hitting and winning," Casey confessed. "I do wish they'd rig me up a telephone to the Braves' bench or get me an amplifier so I could yell those base-runners across the plate. But you can't make any noise in maternity sections."

SENT TO REDS

Brooklyn, May 5 (AP)—The Philadelphia Phils today returned Gar Del Savio, shortstop, to the Cincinnati Reds. The Phils received the former semipro infielder from the Reds recently.

DEADLINE FOR TRUCK REPORTS

Last Friday was the last day for operators of three or more commercial vehicles—trucks, taxicabs, buses, etc.—to turn in operation reports for the first calendar quarter, the Office of Defense Transportation announced Tuesday.

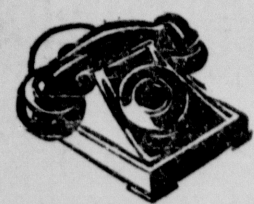

Reports should be made on forms prescribed by the ODT. These forms were mailed to all fleet operators at the time the Certificates of War Necessity were mailed last fall. Operators who failed to receive their forms, or have lost them, may obtain additional copies from the nearest ODT Motor Transport District office.

Mileage Conservation

The information required to fill in the forms can easily be obtained from the operating records which all fleet operators are required to maintain, the ODT said. The quarterly report is merely a compilation of some of this information on gasoline consumed, mileage operated, trips operated and loads carried.

The purpose in requiring this information is to determine the amount of mileage conservation being effected by fleet operators, the ODT said.

Failure to turn in quarterly reports may be considered "good cause" for the suspension or revocation of an operator's Certificate of War Necessity, the ODT pointed out.

OTHERS

There is no happiness quite equal to that which results from doing something to make some one else
happy. Especially is this happiness richly returned when that something is appreciated.Society is held together by the unselfishness of the majority, who think and work in terms of the greatest good to the greatest number. I have never known a person to be happy who took no interest in others.We all know of men who have accumulated great wealth who never knew happiness until they had learned that devotion to the public —to others—is the road that leads to it. All too many learn this too late.The most successful businesses and industrial concerns are those where the management has worked and thought out the most benefits to each and every worker. People always do their best work when they are happy.In all tragic emergencies, others occupy our mind. Their public safety is uppermost. Every true public servant is an agent for others. If he isn't he is no servant, but a hired slave.It is not always popular to take up the cause of Others—especially if they represent the minority. Yet most great revolutions, and most great reforms, have come about by rising from minority rostrals. How often the despised of yesterday have become the revered of today! Why?
Because they gave of their strength and substance to the welfare of others.What we do for others is not always evidenced in appreciation.
But that is not essential to our happiness. It's the act—unselfishly performed—that we do for others, that is its own compensation. I can think of no nobler example of the one who devotes his life to others, than that of the Country Doctor. But did you ever hear of one who ever became rich in money?A family in a foreign land, wishing to send a Christmas greeting to some friends at home, and wishing to save cable tolls, finally decided to save.

first death of a Gettysburg soldier
since the outbreak of the war. Al-

School Teachers Get Salary Increase "Until Victory"

SOLONS AGREE
ON $200-$600
"WAGE BOOST"

By WICK TEMPLE

Harrisburg, May 5 (AP)—Pennsylvania school teachers will get cost-of-living bonuses ranging from $200 to $600 during the next two years under an agreement between Governor Martin and the Legislature. Those in lower salary brackets will profit most.The decision ended a storm of controversy between the Senate and House over size of the increase and removed the last major stumbling block to scheduled final adjournment of the assembly session this week-end.After settlement of the dispute behind the scenes, the Senate put through and sent to the GovernorHarrisburg, May 5 (AP)—The breakdown of the $24,300,000 cost-of-living bonus to 61,000 school teachers under the House-Senate compromise with Governor Martin follows:

Salary Range	Bonus
$1,000-1,099	$600
1,000-1,499	500
1,500-1,999	400
2,000-2,999	300
3,000-3,499	200

a bill by Rep. Thomas B. Stockham (R-Bucks) permitting school districts to grant teachers and other professional employees temporary salary boosts during the war and discontinue them without notice.

Redistricting Bill

The assembly for the second time
also sent to Martin the administration's congressional reapportionment bill which had been recalled for correction. The borough of Ben Avon, Allegheny county, was omitted from the original measure which eliminates one district in Philadelphia and shuffles the Allegheny set-up.Final House approval of the legislation brought from Democratic Leader Reuben E. Cohen the assertion "anything connected with this bill is odious to the Democratic side and the amendment makes it no more palatable." The Democrats claim the measure costs their party five congressmen and have threatened to challenge the proposal in the courts.Appropriation bills topped by an $88,500,000 allotment for relief rolled through the Senate as leaders made ready for final adjournment.

Aid Pension Funds

The House sought to increase the number of coal diggers by lowering from two years to one year the time to qualify an apprentice for a certificate as a bituminous miner.It also approved a bill to distribute an estimated $1,185,000 annually to local police pension funds by giving them one-half of a two per cent tax collected by the commonwealth on premiums of out-of-state casualty insurance companies.The $200-$600 teacher salary increase, estimated to cost $26,776,000, received House approval several weeks ago. Governor Martin's insistence that the amount be pared down, however, brought a reduction in the Senate Education committee to $200-$500, costing $23,764,000.Refusal of the House leadership to approve the changes led to a conference of lawmakers with Martin yesterday, resulting in unanimous agreement to restore the original House brackets.

Where Fifteen Died In Explosives Plant Blast

Elkton, Md.—Blasted and burned buildings at the Triumph Explosives, Inc., plant where at least 15 persons were killed and several hurt, several critically, in an unexplained accident. Two buildings were shattered by the explosion and fire destroyed three others. FBI agents and Army and Navy officers began an immediate investigation. (AP Photo.)

15 Known Dead In Explosion
And Fire At Elkton, Md. Plant

Elkton, Md., May 5 (AP)—Rescue workers dug today into the charred ruins of five Triumph Explosives, Inc., buildings on the outskirts of this small war-boom city seeking additional bodies while investigating officials sought to determine the cause of an explosion in which 15 persons are known to have died.Five of at least 54 persons injured in the explosion that was followed by fire were in serious condition and 19 others were under hospital treatment. Thirty women were given first aid and released.Even as the wreckage was being cleared, other employees returned to work in other buildings, answering a call of army, navy and plant officials to "continue passing the ammunition."

Many are Burned

One storage building was blown to bits and another was wrecked by a second explosion within seconds in mid-afternoon yesterday. Fire spread to three others, burning many workers severely.Window panes and plate glass in homes and business establishments were shattered and cracked by the explosion that was heard for miles around. Ambulances, fire equipment, Red Cross units, civilian defense workers, state police and others sped to the scene.An official statement from Army and Navy officers and Benjamin F.
Pepper, Triumph president, paid high tribute to Naval officers and company employees "who did notable rescue work in utter disregard of their personal safety."The dead and injured were from many states, having come here in the heavy influx of defense workers who caused the population of this little "Greena Green" to jump from 3,518 in the 1940 census to an estimated 12,000 now.The company hospital quickly was filled and the overflow was taken to Elkton's Union hospital and to churches, in front of which crowds of anxious relatives gathered. Few families here do not have some members working in the plant.

WHIPPING POSTPhiladelphia, May 5 (AP)—The whipping post is suggested by Judge Frank Smith for men involved in Philadelphia's current wave of attacks on women.Judge Smith commented yesterday, in sentencing Chester Contino, 18, to two years in prison on charges of indecent assault and assault and battery: "There should be a whipping post for such men. Our women must be protected."As Contino pleaded guilty to attacking Clara Wray, 20-year-old telephone operator, four bowling alley pinboys were indicted for criminal assault, robbery, assault and battery and the seldom-invoked charge of false imprisonment.The charge grew out of their alleged attack last April 12 on Mr.
and Mrs. Samuel Watkins, after which they assertedly held Mrs.
Watkins prisoner in a garage for four hours, mistreating her.Meanwhile Earl Heard, 20, was held without bail, charged with robbery and assault against two women.

wicz pleaded guilty in police court

ADMINISTRATOR
IN EACH STATE

Washington, May 5 (AP)—War

Food Administrator Chester C.
Davis is expected to announce soon
a new field organization to carry out food production programs here-before administered by local farm-committees under direction of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and Agricultural War Boards.The new organization, as tentatively planned, would set up state war food administrators directly responsible to Davis and county war food administrators responsible to the state administrators.The county administrators would have complete control over all local phases of the federal government's food production programs—crop adjustment, crop insurance, crop loans, rehabilitation loans to low-income farm families, farm machinery and supply rationing, and programs relating to the marketing of agricultural products.The setup planned by Davis would unify all activities under one man at the state and county level. The present farmer committee setup would be retained to act in an advisory capacity to county administrators. The committees, however, would have only such administrative duties as might be assigned them by the administrators. In the past, AAA crop programs were operated by the county farmer committees. Members served on a per diem basis of not more than $6. Their pay was deducted from federal benefit payments authorized by AAA programs.The farmer committee system has been the center of controversy in and out of Congress. Critics of the AAA contended that the committee failed to perform functions of leadership, but instead followed directions from AAA headquarters in Washington.

BLIND VIGIL

Eric, Pa., May 5 (AP)—The blind wife of Thomas H. Durkin, 69, returned Pennsylvania Railroad yard conductor, waited four hours yesterday until a postman came to her home, before she could report the accidental death of her husband.Deputy Coroner Frank St. George said the conductor's skull was fractured in a fall down a flight of stairs.

BAN CONTRIBUTIONS

Harrisburg, May 5 (AP)—Favorable committee report today placed on the House calendar for action
later this week a Senate-approved bill banning political contributions by unincorporated organizations, including labor unions. It was amended in the House to provide penalties of $500 to $5,000 for violation by an organization and $1,000 for any individual officer being responsible for a violation.One colony of beavers in the mid-

So with simple stomach digestive juices

If you are subject to poor digestion or is especially designed to promote the

SUPPORTERS OF RUMI TAX BILL KEEP BATTLING

By FRANCIS M. LE MAY

Washington, May 5 (AP)—Undismayed by two defeats in the House, and unsatisfied by the House-approved measure to wipe out 75 per cent of 1942 individual income tax liabilities, Rumi plan advocates today carried their battle to the Senate—which they predicted would pass the full tax year abatement bill.

Chairman George (D-Ga) summoned the Senate Finance committee into session Thursday for speedy action on pay-as-you-go legislation.

The House late yesterday clinched a historic party scrap by passing, 313 to 95, a compromise pay-as-you-go bill. Written by Representative Robertson (D-Va) and Forand (D-RD), it would wipe out the 1942 income tax liabilities completely for about 90 per cent of the taxpayers—numbering over 33,000,000 persons—and impose a 20 per cent withholding levy against wages and salaries, effective July 1.

The Democratic majority had narrowly escaped its worst drubbing in a decade as it managed to beat down the Republican-backed modified Rumi plan, 206 to 202. A month

EXTENSION OF TRUCE IN COAL FIELDS LOOMS

By KENNETH L. DIXON

Washington, May 5 (AP)—The stalemate coal wage struggle stirred speculation here today that the 15-day truce under which the industry now is operating may be extended indefinitely with Harold L. Ickes serving as boss of Uncle Sam's coal fields—perhaps "until Victory."

Once again, coal poured into the war production furnaces at full blast, with most mines on a six-day week but neither the administration nor the United Mine Workers gave the slightest hint of yielding in their wartime wage and jurisdictional tug-of-war.

Another Walkout?

At the same time, few informed sources felt another walkout—such as that of last week-end—would follow expiration of the truce, although they conceded this was an optimistic view since UMW President John L. Lewis plainly has given no indication that he would discourage another stoppage. These sources stressed that, despite their differences, none of the principals in the dispute want to damage the war effort by cutting off the coal supply.

Both President Roosevelt and the fuel administrator who now bosses the government-operated mines left no doubt yesterday that they still consider the War Labor board the only avenue for permanent armistice in the coal case. And Lewis stood just as solidly against the board which he terms prejudiced.

New Schedule

Ickes yesterday ordered on a six-day-week all mines which have received coal price adjustments to compensate for the extra wages—and some saw that as a possible way out for the UMW which seeks wage increases of $2-a-day and portal-to-portal underground pay, among other things. The sixth day's time-and-a-half would provide more pay for miners now working only five.

But operator spokesmen insisted most of the mines already are on such a schedule, and others pointed out that even if that paved the way for peace, any permanent agreement reached involving wage increases would have to be submitted to the board for approval.

If the truce time ends without settlement, informed persons felt the miners might merely continue to work—with the fields operating under the American flag, and the workers looking for any subsequent deal to be retroactive to the date of their last contract's expiration.

Two Sisters And Brother To Marry

West Chester, Pa., May 5 (AP)—The two sisters of Pvt. William H. Halderman, 23, plan to be married Saturday—and so does Pvt. Halderman.

Home on a furlough, he learned his sisters had applied for marriage licenses.

"You can't put anything over on this man's Army," he declared. Agreeing, Miss Anna E. Schreck, 21, signed the third application with him.

To Place Ceiling On 1,000 Articles

Philadelphia, May 5 (AP)—The district office of Price Administration plans to establish price ceilings for approximately 1,000 articles in 25 "basic food groups" in an effort to deal "a crippling blow to black markets."

An OPA spokesman said the prices would be fixed by brand and size of container before beef, veal, mutton and lamb ceilings go into effect May 17.

He said many of the new prices would be lower than current ones.

MYSTERY OF BIG RED HOUSE FETES UNDER SCRUTINY

Washington, May 5 (AP)—The House Military committee today sought to unweave the web of mystery which has been spun around the big red house at 2101 R street.

Resuming its investigation of war contract profits, the committee gave another chance to Mrs. Enla Smith and John Monroe to tell about social gatherings at the House, which they refused to discuss at a committee session last week.

Chairman May (D-Ky) said he understood Mrs. Smith and Monroe were ready to talk freely today, and possibly to give the names of high government officials who have been guests at the Georgian mansion.

Face Contempt Charge

Should they remain adamant and continue to follow legal advice not to talk on the ground they might incriminate themselves, May added, there was a possibility the committee would ask the House to hold them in contempt.

In advance of the meeting, Ralph Burton, committee counsel, declined to indicate just what he expected to learn from the two witnesses, but committee members said they wanted to know whether there was any connection between social gatherings on R street and the letting of war contracts.

Prominent Officials

Names of such prominent officials as Donald Nelson, William Jeffers, Secretary of the Navy Knox, Senator Chandler of Kentucky and Bridges of New Hampshire, and others have been mentioned in published reports dealing with dinner parties at Monroe's house.

Nelson and Jeffers have said they never were in the House.

One witness, A. Bennett Fey, who represented a Pawtucket, R. I., manufacturing company, told the committee last week he had met service officers there. During a period of several months, Fey disclosed, he gave Mrs. Smith checks for $3,300 in payment for "research" work. He said he found her services extremely valuable in such matters as making contacts with engineers and other people he desired to know, but insisted he transacted no business at her home.

State Trooper Is Given Promotion

Harrisburg, May 5 (AP)—Captain William F. Hoffman has been elevated to the rank of major in the Pennsylvania state police and named squadron commander in charge of 23 western counties.

Commissioner C. M. Wilhelm selected the 53-year-old veteran to succeed Major Jacob C. Maaf, who recently was appointed deputy commissioner.

Hoffman, a resident of Harrisburg and member of the state police since 1911, will direct activities of 368 members of the force from headquarters in Greensburg. He has been executive officer in state headquarters for several years.

WILL IMPORT WEST INDIANS TO AID FARMER

Upper Darby, Pa., May 5 (AP)—The Farm Security Administration plans to import "hundreds" of West Indians to provide "substantial relief" for eastern farm labor shortages.

Approximately 100 workers will be transferred from Florida to the FSA migratory labor camp at Swedesboro, New Jersey, within a few days as "the vanguard of West Indies workers that will be here in time to harvest many of the earlier crops," J. H. Wood, director of the FSA Maine - through - Maryland region, announced.

"They are all male, negro, usually between the ages of 25 and 30, skilled in Jamaican agricultural work and healthy," said Wood, adding that agricultural areas will get them on a "first come first served" basis wherever housing and other factors are equal.

Friendly, Religious

Wood said the men "work to the chant of their native Calypso songs. They are friendly, religious and highly sensitive toward racial distinction. While they do not intend intruding upon America's racial customs, they will not stand for abuse."

They speak a rapid, heavily accented English, he said, "which might baffle our farmers for a little while but not for long."

The workers "are up here to make money—as much as possible," Wood said, and "cannot work for less than the prevailing wage." By agreement with the Jamaican government, he added, workers will be placed only where housing facilities are adequate.

Application for workers, who will be located in government or private

Believe Man, 63, Used Gas To Kill Girl And Himself

Pittsburgh, May 5 (AP)—A theory that 63-year-old John C. Rose, self-publishing author and amateur photographer, turned his bedroom into a miniature lethal gas chamber in which to kill himself and a 20-year-old girl, was advanced Monday by Detective Inspector Walter C. Monaghan.

The nude bodies of Rose and Beatrice Willard, daughter of Rose's landlady, were found in the bedroom early last Wednesday morning. Police and the coroner have been puzzled since as to just what caused the deaths.

Inspector Monaghan, who termed the case one of murder and suicide, said his investigation now has convinced him Rose poured acids, similar to those used to create deadly gas in execution chambers, into a crock under his bed.

The inspector said the girl likely died without detecting the gas. By the time police were called, the gas had disappeared. Monaghan said he found Rose had purchased the necessary acids recently.
